Wear A Poppy

The officers and members of Sir Sam Hughes Branch of the Canadian Legion extend an invitation to your household to join them at the Remembrance Service which will take place at the Cenotaph at 10.30 a.m., November 11th, when wreaths will be placed.

Those purchasing wreaths may choose one of their family to lay the wreath, or where not possible, may call upon the services of a member of the Branch.

The blood-red Poppy of Flanders is immortalized as an emblem of Sacrifice and Remembrance for the honoring of thousands who died in foreign lands, leaving down their lives for those things that we as Canadians cherish.

It speaks to us of sacrifice. It calls upon us to remember not only those who have died, but those left behind, those who still suffer from honorable wounds and disabilities. It challenges us to serve in peace as in War—to help those who need our help—those who need our protection.

Judge Rules Extra Mill Not Owing

Victoria County High School Area Board has lost its lawsuit with the Town of Lindsay. The board filed suit against the town to recover an additional one mill on the basis of the town's equalized county assessment to provide for the maintenance of the Area High School. In its specific action the board brought action to "recover $4,419.72 and interest alleged to be balance of defendant municipality's proportion of tax levy for the year 1963 in respect of school maintenance." The case was heard here October 1965 by Justice J. Ferguson who rendered judgment against the town. His judgment was handed down over the weekend and summarized: "... action must therefore be dismissed with costs payable by the plaintiff to defendant forthwith after taxation thereof."

Wolves, No Snow -- Problems

Dear human season opened this morning and by noon Sunday a heavy influx of hunters from all parts of the province had gathered at the many various communities north of Lethbridge.

As an official at the Game Warden's office at Minnedoula, a hunter from the north, although large will not equal the number that have arrived in previous years, hunters are still in a light because of the lack of a light snow on the ground, which has made the hunting season in the Falls has kept the deer well in the woods, and it is believed that the wolves have taken a heavier toll this year than before.

It is also believed that hunters are not so keen as in previous years, feel that the bounty paid for a hide is not worth the effort.

Although the season has been so far, the district yesterday was over even though the game restrictions are still in force. The hunters must pay $30.00 for a hunting license, and is allowed to hunt for a period of 10 days. A border only after thorough inspection by Health Authorities. Hunters are not allowed to hunt for game, but will give their friends and are known to the sport of the hunt.

LETAL ORNAMENTS...

If the details of an accident report on Thursday are correct and a little district boy did lose his life as a result of a brain injury caused when he collided with a "big, ugly, ugly" type of ornament on a car, it is time that these ornaments were labelled "lethal" and banned.

This type of sharp, projecting ornament has long proved a matter of concern to many people. They are extremely dangerous looking and, if there is an inquiry as a result of this traffic liability, and the evidence produced is that they are doing all the power in the world, the court was told. The same issue of this paper also reported two convictions for careless driving, and another conviction for impaired driving was reported yesterday. These two convictions were carried out in the United Counties.

Two things can be gained from this. The first is that Ontario highways are far from safe. The second is that the Ontario government is doing all the power in the world, the court was told. The same issue of this paper also reported two convictions for careless driving, and another conviction for impaired driving was reported yesterday. These two convictions were carried out in the United Counties.

HOW IS THE TIME...

Now is the time... when it is necessary to take extra precautions while driving, walking or cycling. The street surfaces become increasingly more treacherous with the advent of winter and greater care must be taken to avoid accidents. This is particularly true at the times of chaggeover from fall to winter when the more hazardous travelling conditions are accompanied by decreased visibility on many of the main roads. For a few seconds it may be after-daylight hours.

There are plenty of bits of advice which might be given to help promote safety on our streets during these winter months. For a few seconds it may be after-daylight hours. For a few seconds it may be after-daylight hours.

RUMINATION

In terms of money, the cow's peculiar habit of eating large quantities of waste and of trampling down the cattle industry a billion or two billion dollars every year. What it cost the cows in terms of eating stomachs, and it may not be as much as you think. A cow, it should be fairly obvious, is said to a ruminate not because it wears a look of calm reflection on its face but because it ruminates. Presumably the words ruminate and cogitate are used as synonyms only because in moments of deep meditation the human face sometimes assumes a rather bovine aspect.

There are, of course, many other things that cows eat of stomachs, and in Dr. Harold Cooper, who is a veterinary surgeon, has found not only ovals and bits of wire but the key which may enable both the cows and the ruminations to away from the rumen. This is a necessary to testal a magnet in the rumen. This, he believes, will sort out the cow's mental and keep the rumen and will not be a rumination. The cow, it is said, is as far as Dr. Cooper is aware.

On any human scale of values the prospective billion-dollar saving that may stem from Dr. Cooper's research ruminations must take precedence over the concomitant internal discomfort he has bequeathed upon the discriminating cow. All the same, it is pleasant to reflect upon the doctor's magnanimity and to hope that the billion-dollar saving may be less soothing to a cow than Dr. Cooper thinks it will have even three or four thousand dollars from pain must be a vast relief. —The Windsor Free Press.

ARE THEY THINKING OF DEFICIT FINANCING?

There are at least the makings of a new monetary policy in the announcement of finance minister Walter Harris that he is considering both personal and corporation income taxes are too high.

Since he is now getting into the swing of things, getting the outline of his first budget together, such matters naturally are regarded as pragmatic withstanding.

But what sort of meaning? In The Financial Times it was stated that the government was expected to get surplus forecasts by Mr. Abbott may yet be realized by Mr. Harris in the current year.

There is no getting away from the fact, however, that any major operation on the part of the government in an easing of the burden, would make it almost inevitable that the next fiscal years budget—Mr. Harris' first—would have to plan on a deficit. The government, call for a revenue, major policies in this field.

It is possible that the answer to the conundrum posed at least partly be found in the fact that the government that deficit financing may be resorted to, not only to ease the tax burden on corporations and individuals but also to assual what is now one of our big troubles, the straying of the Canadian dollar.

Are we, in other words, going to face a revolution in our monetary and fiscal thinking in order to bring Canada in line with the depreciated currencies such as the United States dollar? Or are we going to face a revolution which the Canadian dollar is a picture of disgustingly healthy composition?

Nobody will quarrel with a tax reduction, either for individuals or for corporations. But it would certainly be much sander to bring it about by a severe cutting out of the frills, by a reduction of all rededible expenditures, rather than by a plan to match either country in the latest annual on stability and budget balance.

We believe the matter is sufficiently important to warrant the very closest study and we also believe that a switch of policy, if indeed a major switch is contemplated, a clash of views which might go far to explain things now quite inexplicable. —The Financial Times.

IMPAIRED DRIVERS ARE A MENACE

Antisocial proof that too many motor vehicle operators are mixing alcohol and gasoline too freely was shown when The Board of Health on Tuesday of this week reported three convictions for impaired driving and two for careless driving. The person involved in the drunk driving case was on suspended sentence for an impaired driving case. The court was told. The same issue of this paper also reported two convictions for careless driving, and another conviction for impaired driving was reported yesterday. These two convictions were carried out in the United Counties.

Two things can be gained from this. The first is that Ontario highways are far from safe. The second is that the Ontario government is doing all the power in the world, the court was told. The same issue of this paper also reported two convictions for careless driving, and another conviction for impaired driving was reported yesterday. These two convictions were carried out in the United Counties.

IN ALL CASES where a conviction for impaired driving was registered, the accused was fined fifty dollars.

A fine of this proportion should be a deterrent. It is a just sentence. It might be well for everyone including the courts, to realize that although you might buy your way out of a conviction, you cannot buy your way out of a conviction. —The Windsor Free Press.

AN INEXCUSABLE WASTE

It would be most unfair to say that our Federal Government does not economize in some places; but a foolishness still prevails in other places. This is particularly true in the case of the letter. It is then dumped into a mail bag and travels to the ends of the earth in a desolate dunghill-south of the equator. For a few seconds it may be after-daylight hours.

First we ask the government where there is even a single featherweight of advertising value in this.

It is not so much as you think. A cow, it should be fairly obvious, is said to a ruminate not because it wears a look of calm reflection on its face but because it ruminates. Presumably the words ruminate and cogitate are used as synonyms only because in moments of deep meditation the human face sometimes assumes a rather bovine aspect.

There are, of course, many other things that cows eat of stomachs, and in Dr. Harold Cooper, who is a veterinary surgeon, has found not only ovals and bits of wire but the key which may enable both the cows and the ruminations to away from the rumen. This is a necessary to testal a magnet in the rumen. This, he believes, will sort out the cow's mental and keep the rumen and will not be a rumination. The cow, it is said, is as far as Dr. Cooper is aware.

END OF A LEGEND

John D. Rockefeller Jr. took the HBC to test the home of his father, the late John D. Rockefeller. The home was a small, one-story house, built in 1850, and was the home of his father, the late John D. Rockefeller. ## FOOLING WITH FOOD

Everybody knows about the United States Government's fantastic stockpile of butter—408 million pounds. At least ninety million pounds, it represents just over five pounds per head of population. The corresponding American figure is only two and a half pounds per head.

For all of this stockpile, butter prices remain high in both countries. Their Governments make sure of this through their various agencies. But the long fact, are they supporting? The American people are turning away from butter. Before the war, they consumed 174 pounds per head per year. Now, the figure is 14.5. Before the war, Canada consumed about two pounds per head per year. Now, the figure is down to twenty.

Meanwhile, in both countries, the margarine industry makes steady progress. In 1941, Americans ate 363 million pounds of it, roughly three pounds per capita. This year, they will eat 13.5 million pounds, roughly eight pounds per capita. Canadians will eat 11 million pounds in 1941. But this year, they will eat 11 million pounds, rather more than seven pounds per capita.

In the short run, it would seem that Ottawa and Washington are making the best of both worlds. High-priced butter plagues the margarine producers quite as much as it plagues the dairymen. But the longer someone is going to get hurt. Anybody can see that at some point—or only for lack of warehouse space—somebody is going to have to get rid of the surplus. It is the people on whom it will fall are the ones who will forget that food is not produced to be stored, destroyed, debated in Parliament or otherwise fooled around with. Food is produced to be eaten. —The Globe and Mail.

Our Lovely Queen Mother
Those who see the Queen Mother, the most beautiful woman in the world, are not able to make the mistake of thinking that she is a woman who is not a theatrical performer."

Baroness, whose full name is Queen Elizabeth II, was born in London, England, on April 21, 1900. How does she feel about Hollywood chatter? She says:

"There are a lot of glamorous people in the United States who are American in spirit, but they are English, they are in Hollywood, and they have been here for a long time. They have had the opportunity of seeing them."

Crack Smack
A crack smack making her way in the United States thinks the new day look is ruining her. Queen Elizabeth II, "The Lady of the Winds," now is under-swinging like a Broadway production of "Cats." And she has played the part quite as well as the others.

But she says the new day look is ruining her. Queen Elizabeth II, "The Lady of the Winds," now is under-swinging like a Broadway production of "Cats." And she has played the part quite as well as the others.

Cambray Cards Are Presented With Trophy

Estimated $1,100 Damage In Lindsay House Fire, Started In Stovepipes

Cambray (P.N.) — The Cambray family of Lindsay Independent Baseball League enjoyed a turkey dinner accompanied by their wives, sweethearts and all friends interested in the home team. The banquet was organized by the W. M. W. Institute.

Chairman of the evening was Mr. William Worley, Deputy Mayor for Lindsay. Mr. Worley expressed thanks on behalf of the wife and himself to the baseball players for the invitation to attend this festive occasion, and sincerely congratulated the boys on their success during the past summer. He also congratulated them for the honorable and clean way they conducted their sports. Mr. Worley explained to the young people they should be proud of their religious heritage and had the privilege of going to church and were not forced to go. We urged each one to use that privilege and make their church service a regular habit. Mr. Worley also advised the audience that the cost of Cambray would be paid next minute if possible. The first speaker was Rev. F. J. Little who expressed his thanks for being asked to be the dinner. Rev. Little made the statement he had never seen clearer and opportunistic than the boys being displayed during the service.

Mr. Cecil Smith, Ontario, after a humorous address, presented the Cambray Cardinals with the trophy they had won during the series of games in the Victoria Independent League played over the summer period and congratulated the boys most sincerely. He spoke of the times when he played baseball in the community. The trophy was presented to Mr. Stuart Minto who thanked Mr. Smith on behalf of the Cardinals.

The guest speaker, Mr. Wm. Cummins, of Lindsay, was introduced by the chairman. Mr. Cummins is interested in sports, is a member of the Children's Aid and is a baseball umpire. A stop song "Take Me Out To The Ball Game" was followed by a question quiz for the boys, pertaining to baseball. This was won by Mr. Jon Ketchum. Mr. Cummins gave a most inspiring address on rules, regulations and good sportsmanship to be applied to any baseball team. This speaker was enjoyed by all at the picnic.

Extensive damage has been done to a Lindsay home.

Lindsay's Fire Department was called out Monday a.m., when fire struck at the home of Mr. Bruce Curriens, 33 Leith St.

The fire was attributed to overflowing stovepipes, coming from a coal stove in the kitchen at the rear of the small acre-and-a-half dwelling, and had spread up the wall and into the attic, which contained the sleeping quarters.

It is believed that if it had not been for the prompt arrival and efficient work of the Fire Department, the home, would have been completely destroyed in a very few hours.

According to Fire Chief Wm. Dumas, the building amounted to approximately 700,000 and contents $400.

Lindsay's Chief Magistrate, Mr. E. K. Mox, was one of the first to arrive at the scene of the fire, and commented on the difficulty involving fire public services to reach this part of the town, quickly.

Another highlight of the evening was impromptu speeches from the boys who played ball here some time ago.

According to the World Almanac, nothing memorable happened in 1988. Anyway, the year is entirely skipped to the latest edition.

But the World Almanac is wrong. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown, of Brownwood, Texas, were married in 1988.

What makes it memorable is that today they are celebrating their 74th wedding anniversary as probably the oldest married couple in the United States. Her 77 — she's 82. They received telegrams of congratulation from President Eisenhower — BUP.

The Sunderland Post Office has been the victim of previous robberies. The postmaster is John Hall.

He was released shortly thereafter. Dr. C. W. M. Sayer attended the injured and Constable Plummer, of the O.P.P. is investigating.

Young Lindsay Woman Dies Unexpectedly, Inquest Seen Possible

No Truth Chief Says

"There is absolutely no truth to the claims being made by radio stations and wire services that I made a statement as to the possible cause of death of Mrs. Howard J. O'Neill," stated Crown Attorney Lerne W. Jordan today.

Chief John Hunter of the Lindsay Police told The Post-Race just before press time following reports of radio broadcasts on the woman's death.

The Chief stated that representatives of other news outlets have grossly misquoted him, and had relayed this incorrect news to the national wire services. This says the Chief, will cause great embarrassment to all concerned.

All officers of the Lindsay Police Department have been instructed not to comment when questioned on the matter of the tragic death. It is reported that Dr. Broadford, the physician on call for that Sunday, is expected that Dr. Broadford, the physician on call to Governor Dr. M. E. Gorman, who upon examination called for an autopsy. Mr. O'Neill's brother told "The Post" that he took over an hour to reach a doctor.

Shoulders Soft, Cries Ditched

O.P.P. authorities report two minor accidents in the district over the weekend.

On Saturday evening, about 8:30 p.m., two cars went out of control on No. 7 Highway at Chandler's service station, after striking the soft shoulders of the road. They were being driven by James Long, head of Birmingham and Donald Edwards also of Birmingham.

After careening off the road into the ditch, the occupants of the two cars were reported to have considered themselves fortunate to have escaped with minor injuries.

Another accident took place on No. 36 Highway at the south end of Lindsay on Sunday afternoon, when a car being driven by

"Present indications are that an inquest will be held into the death of Mrs. Thekla 'Phyllis' O'Neill, but this cannot be confirmed until the official report and analysis is released from the pathologist in Toronto," stated Crown Attorney Lerne W. Jordan today.

It is reported that Mrs. O'Neill, wife of Howard J. (Barney) O'Neill, died unexpectedly at home Sunday afternoon after she had gone to her upstairs apartment to rest. It is reported that Mr. O'Neill was an employee of his store. Remains of the body were found and found that she appeared to be dying.

According to sources close to the family, several attempts were made at once to locate the services of a doctor but all are reported to have been unsuccessful. These same sources claim Mr. O'Neill then contacted the hospital who informed him that Dr. T. W. L. Broadford was the physician on call for that Sunday. It is reported that Dr. Broadford, the physician on call to Governor Dr. M. E. Gorman, who upon examination called for an autopsy. Mr. O'Neill's brother told "The Post" that he took over an hour to reach a doctor.

The autopsy was performed by Dr. R. O. MacIntyre, and after examination of the results of this autopsy, he called to the Provincial Pathologist, Dr. Whelan of Pelee hospital. It was then decided to have an autopsy made by Dr. Joseph Rogers, the Chief Coroner for the province of Ontario in Toronto.

Dr. Gorman informed the Chief of Police John Hunter of the situation, which is routine in the case of death which is suspected to be from other than natural cause.

Mrs. O'Neill was 39 years old at the time of her death. She was residing at Burrows Private Home on Mill St. The funeral home was called at 8 p.m. from Cambridge Street United Church.

Mr. R. MacIntyre of Toronto has the body laid out in the ditch and sent out of the city. The O.P.P. report that about $500,000 was done to the city.
